Introduction

This prayer booklet serves two purposes:

Our Week of Prayer (January 5-11)

We're going to use this booklet as a prayer guide during our annual Week of Prayer.

Join us for in-person prayer meetings:

- Sunday afternoon at 3
- Weekday evenings at 7
- Saturday morning at 10

Or participate online on weekdays (12:00-12:45 p.m.).

Year-Round Prayer

This booklet also serves as a year-round prayer list.

- Use the Lord's Prayer pattern to guide your personal prayers.
- Throughout the year, choose some weeks that you'll pray for the items listed in this booklet. It will allow you to pray for our ministries and members each time you use it.

The Lord's Prayer is a powerful model that can transform how we pray. Let's use this guide to enhance our prayer lives individually and as a church, seeking God's blessing and the increase of his kingdom for his glory.

The Lord's Prayer

PRAY THEN LIKE THIS:

“OUR FATHER IN HEAVEN, HALLOWED BE YOUR NAME. YOUR KINGDOM COME, YOUR WILL BE DONE, ON EARTH AS IT IS IN HEAVEN.

GIVE US THIS DAY OUR DAILY BREAD, AND FORGIVE US OUR DEBTS, AS WE ALSO HAVE FORGIVEN OUR
DEBTORS. AND LEAD US NOT INTO

TEMPTATION, BUT DELIVER US FROM EVIL.” (MT 6:9–13)

Introduction to the Lord's Prayer

The Lord's Prayer has been and remains the greatest prayer of the church...

At the disciples' request (Luke 11:1), Jesus provided it for them as a pattern for prayer. Strictly speaking, it is a prayer that the sinless Christ could never pray in its entirety because the last part includes a petition for the forgiveness of sins: "Forgive us our debts, as we also have forgiven our debtors." But the prayer's six petitions are absolutely perfect for every man or woman who has ever lived. Its initial focus is upward, with its first three requests having to do with God's glory. The remaining three requests are for our well-being. God first, man second—that is the ideal order of prayer. His glory before our wants. This is parallel to the Ten Commandments, the first four of which have to do with God's glory and the last six with man's well-being. This prayer is the perfect prayer. Of its perfection Bonhoeffer said, "The Lord's Prayer is not merely the pattern prayer, it is the way Christians must pray... The Lord's Prayer is the quintessence of prayer."

(Kent Hughes, The Sermon on the Mount: The Message of the Kingdom, Preaching the Word)

Chapter One

Sunday

Invocation

“Our Father in heaven...” (Matthew 6:9)

When we say "Abba" (meaning Father), we're highlighting the close, loving relationship between God and his children. Through Jesus, we can share in this special parent-child connection with God. This means we can pray with confidence, knowing that our loving Father listens and cares for us, making prayer more personal and meaningful.

When we add "in heaven," we're remembering that God is also all-powerful and beyond our earthly realm. "Father in heaven" shows that God is powerful and rules from above, yet he genuinely cares about our daily needs.

Worship in Song

This I Believe

VERSE 1

Our Father everlasting, the all creating One, God almighty
Through Your Holy Spirit, conceiving Christ the Son, Jesus our Saviour

CHORUS 1

I believe in God our Father, I believe in Christ the Son
I believe in the Holy Spirit, our God is three in one
I believe in the resurrection, that we will rise again
For I believe in the name of Jesus

VERSE 2

Our judge and our defender, suffered and crucified,
Forgiveness is in You
Descended into darkness, You rose in glorious light, forever seated high

BRIDGE

I believe in You, I believe You rose again
I believe that Jesus Christ is Lord

CHORUS 2

I believe in life eternal, I believe in the virgin birth
I believe in the saints' communion, and in Your holy church
I believe in the resurrection, when Jesus comes again
For I believe in the name of Jesus

TAG

For I believe in the name of Jesus

Prayers of Adoration

- Praise God for being both an intimate Father and the majestic ruler of heaven.
- Praise God for inviting us to approach his throne with confidence and childlike trust.
- Praise God for his daily care and attention to his children's needs, bearing our burdens as a loving parent.
- Praise God for being our mighty rock and refuge while maintaining a tender Father's heart.

- Praise God for adopting us as His children through Jesus Christ and giving us the privilege to call Him "Abba."
- Praise God for welcoming us to bring all our requests to him with expectant hearts, knowing he hears as a loving Father.

Testimonies

How have you sensed God's Fatherly care in your life?

Scripture Reading

And when you pray, you must not be like the hypocrites. For they love to stand and pray in the synagogues and at the street corners, that they may be seen by others. Truly, I say to you, they have received their reward. But when you pray, go into your room and shut the door and pray to your Father who is in secret. And your Father who sees in secret will reward you.

And when you pray, do not heap up empty phrases as the Gentiles do, for they think that they will be heard for their many words. Do not be like them, for your Father knows what you need before you ask him. Pray then like this:

Pray then like this: "Our Father in heaven,
hallowed be your name.
Your kingdom come, your will be done,
on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread,
and forgive us our debts,
as we also have forgiven our debtors.
And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil."

For if you forgive others their trespasses, your heavenly Father will also forgive you, but if you do not forgive others their trespasses, neither will your Father forgive your trespasses.

(Matthew 6:5–15)

Devotional

Prayers of Response

- Pray that God's children would approach God with both holy reverence and childlike confidence.
- Pray that believers would grow in their understanding of what it means to call God "Abba Father" and live as his beloved children.

- Pray that the church would embrace both corporate and individual prayer, remembering we are part of God's family called to pray with and for others.
- Pray that Christians would find comfort in knowing their heavenly Father is both willing and able to help them in every circumstance.
- Pray that believers would draw near to God with the right combination of holy reverence and intimate trust, knowing he welcomes them as a loving Father.

Song

How Deep The Father's Love For Us

VERSE 1

How deep the Father's love for us, how vast beyond all measure
That He should give His only Son to make a wretch His treasure
How great the pain of searing loss, the Father turns His face away

As wounds which mar the Chosen One bring many sons to glory

VERSE 2

Behold the man upon a cross, my sin upon His shoulders
Ashamed I hear my mocking voice call out among the scoffers
It was my sin that held Him there until it was accomplished
His dying breath has brought me life, I know that it is finished

VERSE 3

I will not boast in anything, no gifts, no power, no wisdom
But I will boast in Jesus Christ, His death and resurrection
Why should I gain from His reward, I cannot give an answer
But this I know with all my heart, His wounds have paid my ransom

Song

King Of Kings

VERSE 1

In the darkness we were waiting without hope, without light Till from heaven You came running, there was mercy in Your eyes

To fulfill the law and prophets, to a virgin came the Word
From a throne of endless glory to a cradle in the dirt

CHORUS

Praise the Father, praise the Son, praise the Spirit three in one
God of glory, Majesty, praise forever to the King of Kings

VERSE 2

To reveal the kingdom coming and to reconcile the lost
To redeem the whole creation, You did not despise the cross
For even in Your suffering You saw to the other side
Knowing this was our salvation, Jesus for our sake You died

VERSE 3

And the morning that You rose all of heaven held its breath
Till that stone was moved for good for the Lamb had conquered death

And the dead rose from their tombs and the angels stood in awe
For the souls of all who'd come to the Father are restored

VERSE 4

And the church of Christ was born, then the Spirit lit the flame
Now this gospel truth of old shall not kneel, shall not faint
By His blood and in His name and in His freedom I am free
For the love of Jesus Christ who has resurrected me

Chapter Two

Monday

Petition One

"Hallowed be your name" (Matthew 6:9)

When we pray "hallowed be thy name," we're asking that God's name be treated with deep respect and honour in the world and in all parts of our lives. It's not just about not misusing God's name; it's about demonstrating through our actions that God is holy and deserving of praise.

In all aspects of our lives—work, family, relationships, and how we treat others—we should reflect God's holiness and honour his name. When our lives demonstrate joy and reverence, even in difficult times, we honour God's name.

Read

Pray then like this: "Our Father in heaven,
hallowed be your name.

Your kingdom come, your will be done,
on earth as it is in heaven.

Give us this day our daily bread,
and forgive us our debts,

as we also have forgiven our debtors.

And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil."

(Matthew 6:9–13)

Pray

- Pray that God would help us recognize opportunities in our daily lives to glorify his name through our words, actions, and attitudes, especially in challenging situations
- Pray that the church worldwide would faithfully represent his holiness and character, drawing others to know him through authentic Christian witness
- Pray that God would guide us to order our family lives, work relationships, and personal conduct in ways that bring honour to his name and demonstrate your transforming power

- Pray that he would work in our communities and nations, causing more people to recognize and reverence his holy name through the testimony of believers
- Ask for wisdom and courage to stand for his truth in a world that often dishonours his name
- Ask for help to respond to both blessings and trials in ways that reflect his goodness and sovereignty, making his name known through our faithful testimony

Chapter Three

Tuesday

Petition Two

“Your kingdom come...” (Matthew 6:10)

When we pray “thy kingdom come,” we’re asking for three main things:

1. We’re asking God to create the perfect world he promised when Jesus returns and restores everything.
2. We’re also praying that more people would come to know God (through spreading the good news).
3. And we’re asking that God’s people would grow stronger in their faith and experience more of God’s power in their lives now.

This prayer anticipates the future when God's perfect rule will be fully established and seen by everyone. It's like saying, "God, please bring your perfect plan to completion."

Read

And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil."
(Matthew 6:9–13)

Pray

- Pray that the Gospel would continue to advance and change lives worldwide.
- Pray that believers would live authentic faith that draws others to Christ.
- Pray that Christ's reign would transform hearts, lives and communities.

- Pray that God would protect and strengthen his church as we await his return.
- Pray that God's final victory would come soon, establishing his perfect rule.

Chapter Four

Wednesday

Petition Three

“Y our will be done, on earth as it is in heaven.”
(Matthew 6:10)

When we pray “thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven,” we’re praying for three things:

1. We’re asking God to help us follow his “good, pleasing and perfect will” in our daily lives (Romans 12:2).
2. We’re inviting God to transform us, which can be difficult as it requires us to let go of our own desires and plans.
3. We’re asking that, like angels who fulfill God’s will joyfully, we would strive to do the same on earth, with complete devotion, not reluctance.

When we pray this, we're acknowledging that we need God's help to align our choices with his plans. It means believing that God's plan for us is better than our own, even when it's hard to see.

This prayer also reminds us that one day, when Jesus returns, God's will shall be perfectly done everywhere on earth. We keep praying and look forward to that day.

Read

Pray then like this: "Our Father in heaven,
hallowed be your name.

Your kingdom come, your will be done,
on earth as it is in heaven.

Give us this day our daily bread,
and forgive us our debts,

as we also have forgiven our debtors.

And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil."

(Matthew 6:9–13)

Pray

- Pray that God would help his people follow his commands in their daily lives and choices.
- Pray that believers would surrender their own plans and desires to embrace God's better purposes.

- Pray that Christians would serve God joyfully and wholeheartedly, just as the angels do.
- Pray that believers would trust and submit to God's direction, even when it's difficult to understand.
- Pray that God's perfect will would be accomplished on earth, as we look forward to Christ's return.

Petition Four

“Give us this day our daily bread...” (Matthew 6:11)

When we pray “give us this day our daily bread,” we are acknowledging our reliance on God for all our needs, both physical and spiritual. This prayer shows that we trust God to provide what we need each day, rather than worrying about the future.

It’s like the workers in ancient times who were paid one day at a time - they had to trust they would receive what they needed for that day. Similarly, when we pray this way, we’re saying, “God, I trust you to take care of me today.” This helps us focus on today’s needs and reminds us that God is in charge of our daily provision.

Read

Pray then like this: "Our Father in heaven,
hallowed be your name.
Your kingdom come, your will be done,
on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread,
and forgive us our debts,
as we also have forgiven our debtors.
And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil."
(Matthew 6:9–13)

Pray

- Pray for daily trust in God's faithful provision for all physical and spiritual needs.
- Pray for contentment with God's provision, recognizing that he knows exactly what we need.
- Pray for wisdom using God's daily gifts responsibly and gratefully.
- Pray for faith to focus on today's needs rather than worrying about tomorrow's uncertainties.
- Pray for recognition that every good gift comes from God's generous hand.

- Pray for God's blessing upon the resources he provides, that they would sustain both body and soul.

Chapter Six

Friday

Petition Five

"Forgive us our debts, as we also have forgiven our debtors." (Matthew 6:12)

When we pray "forgive us our debts, as we forgive those who trespass against us," we're asking God for two important things:

1. We're asking God to forgive our debts - the debt we owe for the wrongs we've done that we could never make right on our own.
2. We're also asking God to help us forgive others who have hurt us.

This prayer reminds us that our spiritual needs (like forgiveness) are even more important than our physical needs. It also shows that God's forgiveness and our forgiveness of others are connected. When we truly understand how much God has forgiven us, it should make us more willing to forgive others. Our relationship with God influences how we treat others; if we accept his forgiveness, we should also forgive others.

Read

Pray then like this: “Our Father in heaven,
hallowed be your name.

Your kingdom come, your will be done,
on earth as it is in heaven.

Give us this day our daily bread,
and forgive us our debts,
as we also have forgiven our debtors.

And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil.”

(Matthew 6:9–13)

Pray

- Praise God that he freely pardons our sins through Christ's sacrifice.
- Pray that we would deeply understand and appreciate the magnitude of God's forgiveness.
- Pray that God would help his people forgive others from the heart, just as he has forgiven them.
- Pray that Christians would recognize forgiveness as a crucial spiritual need, even more important than physical needs.

- Pray that God's forgiveness would transform relationships, enabling his people to extend grace to those who have hurt them.
- Pray that believers would live in the freedom of both receiving and giving forgiveness.

Chapter Seven

Saturday

Petition six

“And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil.” (Matthew 6:13)

When we pray “lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil,” we’re seeking God’s protection from temptation and evil.

1. We don’t believe God tempts us, but we ask him to protect us from temptations that may overwhelm us. We’re saying, “God, please don’t let us face situations that would overwhelm us and lead us to sin.”
2. We’re also asking God to protect us from Satan (the evil one) and his attacks. This part of the prayer acknowledges the reality of Satan and emphasizes our need for God’s strength to resist him.

This prayer reflects our humility, acknowledging that we need God's help to resist temptation and evil. While some challenges help us grow spiritually, we need God's protection from those that might destroy our faith. Only through depending on God can we have victory over temptation and evil.

Read

Pray then like this: "Our Father in heaven,
hallowed be your name.

Your kingdom come, your will be done,
on earth as it is in heaven.

Give us this day our daily bread,
and forgive us our debts,

as we also have forgiven our debtors.

And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil."

(Matthew 6:9–13)

Pray

- Pray that God would protect his people from overwhelming temptations that could lead to sin.
- Pray that believers would recognize their need for God's strength in resisting evil.
- Pray that God would deliver his people from Satan's attacks and spiritual warfare.

- Pray that Christians would grow in humility, acknowledging their dependence on God's protection.
- Pray that God would provide strength and support when his people face temptations.
- Pray that believers would experience victory over evil through their reliance on God's power.

The Lord's Prayer

The Lord's Prayer stands as the cornerstone of Christian prayer life. This timeless prayer, given by Jesus to his disciples, serves as a template for prayer and a powerful expression of faith that unites Christians everywhere. It weaves together praise, petition, and protection, while teaching us how to maintain a meaningful relationship with our Heavenly Father.

Join us in exploring The Lord's Prayer, our guide for the 2025 Week of Prayer and beyond. Each day provides prayer points and names of members to pray for, helping to enhance your prayer life and strengthen our church community.

This booklet is designed to be your companion not just for a week, but throughout the year. Whether you're new to prayer or seeking to enrich your prayer life, let these pages guide you into a more meaningful conversation with God.
